Costs

Purchase Price $

This is the amount stated within the contract. For house and land packages, separate the cost of land and construction (including all variations)

Stamp duty costs $.....

Stamp duty payable to the Office of State Revenue. This is for reporting purposes only. Your accountant will deal with this amount separately.

Legal Costs associated with the purchase $

This is the amount for conveyancing fees associated with your purchase. This is for reporting purposes only. Your accountant will deal with this amount separately.

Date of exchange

This is the date that contracts were exchanged

Date of settlement.....

This is the date that the property settled and you took ownership of it

Date of first lease

Date of first lease: If the property was bought as an investment property and it was available for rent from the date of settlement, then the date of first lease would be the same as the date of settlement.

If you lived in the property for a few years prior to renting it out, then the date of first lease would be the date that the property became available for rent (i.e. you signed an agency agreement or you advertised it for rent).

If you require your schedule top be back dated, please insert the date that you would like the schedule to commence. Remember, this date must be the date at which the property was available for rent.
